

PROGRAMS DEPARTMENT

Services that promote self-sufficiency and leadership

Homeownership Program

Have you dreamed of owning your own home? Portland Community Reinvestment Initiatives can make it possible...with the help of certified homeownership counselors, financial wellness training, and access to down payment assistance.

Homeownership Retention Program

Are you at risk of losing your home? Do you know someone at risk of losing their home? The Homeownership Retention Program offers post purchase support to prevent foreclosure and help families maintain homeownership.

Financial Wellness Program

Did you know that Portland Community Reinvestment Initiatives offers training and counseling in money management? Whether you want to stick to a budget, keep track of our spending, build or repair your credit, or save for a goal, PCRI can help you get your house in order.

We also offer Individual Development Accounts (IDA). An IDA is a matched savings account program. We will match you $3 for every $1 that you save. With an IDA you can purchase a home, repair the home you already own, go to college, get job training, or start a business.

Healthy Foods Access Initiative

What do you get when you combine safe, healthy, and affordable housing with safe, healthy, and affordable food? PCRI's Healthy Foods Access Initiative! Join our growing community of residents interested in eating delicious, fresh foods, preventing diet-related diseases, and learning about opportunities for building small businesses.

Youth Program

What does PCRI have to offer for residents who are 18 and younger? PCRI's youth program runs year-round and includes education, arts enrichment, healthy lifestyles, career development, and community engagement events. We offer a range of fun and interesting activities, such as homework help, art and music classes, cooking and gardening lessons, volunteer opportunities, and internships. .

Resident Services

Want to find a job? Improve your resume? Refine your computer skills? Or maybe get to know other residents while enjoying some tasty food? PCRI has resident services coordinators dedicated to providing you with information, advocacy, and assistance. We also send out newsletters, organize fun events, and work toward bringing the PCRI community together.
